COLONEL CLAIMS
ENOUGH VOTESSays Campaign for Republican Nomination Is Over.

MAKES POSITIVE STATEMENT

Roosevelt Declares He Has Over Five Hundred Votes Without Counting the Contested Delegates and Says He Is Confident of Receiving the Presidential Nomination on the First Ballot.

Dayton, O., May 16.—In the opinion of Theodore Roosevelt the campaign for the Republican nomination for president has now been decided. He dictated this statement:

"The number of delegates necessary to nominate is 539. Of the delegates already elected, without counting the contested delegates, I have more than 500. Of the delegates yet to be elected I am confident I will receive enough to insure my nomination on the first ballot."

Colonel Roosevelt's claim was based upon a table of delegates prepared by his secretary. According to this calculation there are nearly 500 delegates already elected and instructed for Roosevelt without including any uninstructed or contested delegates. Colonel Roosevelt said as he went over the table that he was assured of enough votes from the total of uninstructed and contested delegates to be able to state that of the delegates already selected he had more than 500.

Not Counting On Ohio.

He referred to a number of states in which he said he would receive more votes than are included in the list of delegates now instructed for him. The table, he added, did not take into consideration the chances of obtaining delegates from Ohio or New Jersey.

A new broom was tied to the rear platform of the Roosevelt special train. In speaking at Kenton, Colonel Roosevelt said:

"Of uncounted delegates that have been elected we now have a considerable majority over Mr. Taft. On the present showing it would be impossible to nominate him except by unfairly and improperly seating delegates who have no possible claim to sit in the convention."

Colonel Roosevelt began the second day of his Ohio campaign in Elyria, where he made a speech before breakfast and ended it at Dayton. He delivered fifteen speeches during the day to crowds of large size.

In his address at Springfield, Colonel Roosevelt criticized President Taft.

Refers to Brownsville Affair.

"A certain Lorimer congressman from Illinois," said he, "who is supporting Mr. Taft, as his chief, Senator Lorimer, did, has come into Ohio bringing a number of members of the two companies of the colored regiment which were discharged on account of the riot at Brownsville. These men are brought here by the Taft managers to assail me for what I did at Brownsville, to try to get our colored fellow citizens to vote against me."

"I always accept full responsibility for what I do. I did take the action at Brownsville and my judgment in taking it has been ratified over and over again by every competent man who investigated the matter; by tribunal after tribunal. I want you to understand that I am not taking back by one finger's breadth any action of mine. If I should lose every delegate in every state in the Union by taking it I would take that action over again."

"I want to call your attention to the fact that the Taft managers at a time when Mr. Taft is in the state himself, without one word of protest from him, are trying to use that incident to my discredit and to his advantage. Now I acted on the recommendation of Mr. Taft when he was my secretary of war."

FIVE DIE IN FOREST FIRES

Heavy Timber Damage Occurs in Northwest Washington.

Seattle, Wash., May 16.—Five lives known to be lost, two men missing and property damage of several hundred thousand dollars are the results of several forest fires which swept over the northwestern part of Washington. The fires are still burning uncontrolled, but in most sections the situation shows improvement.

The most serious fires are in Snohomish county, where several saw mills and logging camps have been destroyed.

The only loss of life reported occurred in the fire which destroyed four logging camps in Skagit county. Fifty million feet of green timber were destroyed by this fire. Other fires in Western Washington brought the total timber destroyed to 70,000,000 feet.

Drowned When Sailboat Upsets.

Minneapolis, May 16.—Harold Martinson, thirteen-year-old son of Nels Martinson, station agent at Wayzata, was drowned, and Uril Martinson, twelve years old, son of Detective Oscar Martinson of Minneapolis, narrowly escaped with his life in the upsetting of a sailboat on the east shore of Wayzata bay, Lake Minnetonka.

at Tennessee Convention.

DEMOCRATS NEARLY FIGHT

Police Reserves Called to Quiet Tennessee Convention.

Nashville, Tenn., May 16.—Police reserves were called to quiet delegates at the Democratic state convention here when it seemed that a fight was about to occur on the rostrum.

Representative K. D. McKellar during a speech said the "Democratic party is tired of Dibble," whereupon Dibble, who is state comptroller, mounted the rostrum and started towards McKellar. There was a general rush of delegates, during which the speakers' table was overturned, but order was restored before serious damage was done. Dibble denied he intended striking McKellar.

COLONEL HAS ABOUT
25,000 MAJORITYCalifornia Primary Returns Are Not Yet Complete.

San Francisco, May 16.—With the lead held by Roosevelt gaining, as belated returns from Tuesday's preferential primary are received, indications are that he will approximate the 25,000 majority estimated for him by his managers. Figures at hand from 2,855 precincts out of a total of 3,700, give: Roosevelt, 122,702; Taft, 62,332; La Follette, 40,825.

This gives Roosevelt a present majority of 19,480. The same precincts give Clark 35,481 and Wilson 15,694. Conjecture among politicians is busy with the condition presented by Taft's having carried the Fourth congressional district, which is in San Francisco. While many express the belief that two delegates from this district will be sent to the national convention as contestants Philip S. Teller, vice chairman of the Taft Republicans of the state, said he believed a contest doubtful. None in the Roosevelt camp had given the subject a thought, it was said.

There is direct conflict between the state primary law and the rule of the Republican national committee regarding the selection of delegates. The state law, enacted at a special session of the legislature last December, provides for the nomination of delegates from congressional districts and their election by the state at large, while the rule of the national committee is that delegates must be selected by congressional districts.

There was nothing on the ballot to indicate from which congressional districts the twenty-six delegates were elected. All were elected from the state at large.

So far the returns show that Taft carried only one county, Calaveras. La Follette carried San Joaquin county.

COMPROMISE BILL PASSED

Increase of Workmen Insurance Rates
to Go to Referendum.

Springfield, Ill., May 16.—By a vote of 28 to 12 the senate passed the compromise bill agreed on by a committee representing the American Workmen of the order and the "insurgents" of the order. The bill is a substitute for the Donahue bill, which was passed by the house a few weeks ago. It will now go to the house in the form of an amendment and probably will be passed. The substitute bill provides that the matter of increasing rates be put to a referendum and under its provisions the burden of preventing the new rates from becoming effective is placed on the "insurgents," who must muster a vote of more than 50 per cent of the total membership of the order against the increase.

Parliamentary "Popping." A member of congress had been paying attention to a young lady for a long while and had taken her to attend the house until she was well posted in the rules. On the last day of the session she came out he bought her a bouquet of flowers and said to her, "May I offer you my hand of flowers?" She replied promptly, "I move to amend by omitting all after the word 'hand.'" He blushing accepted the amendment, and they adopted it unanimously.

POLITICAL MIXUP
IS PRONOUNCEDMen, Not Measures, Figure In
the Campaign.

FORAKER IS ENJOYING IT.

Ex-Senator Says It Does Him Good to See "Those Two Fellows Telling the Truth About Each Other"—Old Controversy as to Senate and House Expenditures Is Up Again.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 16.—[Special.]—In these disturbed political times there are Republicans who say they will vote the Democratic ticket and Democrats who will vote the Republican ticket, provided always that certain men distasteful to them are named for president. The political mixup is more pronounced than it has been at any time since 1896, but at that time issues rather than men governed the situation. Now issues have been lost sight of in the personal side of the presidential contest in both parties. It is men, not measures, which figure in the campaign before the conventions.

Enjoying the Fight.

Once in a while we hear of some one who is really enjoying the situation. Such a report came from Ohio. "It does me good to see those two fellows telling the truth about each other," is a remark made by former Senator Foraker, who at different times in his career has been an ardent supporter of both Roosevelt and Taft and since then bitterly opposed to and by both of them.

It was Foraker who took the Ohio situation in hand and endorsed Roosevelt for president in 1903, a year before the national campaign opened. He did this in defiance of the wishes of Hanna. Then Foraker fought through the senate the confirmation of Leonard Wood as major general of the army in the face of intense opposition. Wood was Roosevelt's personal appointee and friend. Later Foraker and Roosevelt split on railroad regulation and are now bitter foes. Taft and Foraker split at the same time, for in those days the two contestants for the Republican nomination were Will and Theodore to each other, with the word "dear" prefixed if they were writing letters.

An Old, Old Controversy.

Every two or three years the old controversy as to the expenditures in the senate as compared to those of the house come up for discussion. Members of the house receive the same salaries as the senators, but their clerks are paid less, and they do not have so many of them. Every senator has at least one clerk at $2,200 and a messenger at $1,440, while the allowance for a congressman is one clerk at $1,500. The house members do not like this inequality, but they have not the nerve to stop it. To reduce the number of clerks or the salaries of the senate would not be considered "comity" between the houses. The senate goes on in its own way and pays its clerks and as many of them as it chooses. The house creeps along slowly a few years behind, but catching up to some extent, and the result is that congress has grown more expensive proportionately than almost any other branch or department of the government.

Signers of Petitions.

Giving a list of names of members of congress who had signed a certain petition regarding an appointment. Congressman Austin of Tennessee had a number of men on their feet. Both Dabzell and Moore of Pennsylvania declared if their names were on the paper they had no recollection of signing and did not know they had signed such a document.

Need of Clerks.

Members of congress were trying to obtain more money for their clerks, and Fitzgerald was opposing it. "Some of the members will need more clerk hire before next November," remarked a New Yorker. "If they continue to go on as they have during the present session. We might as well face this proposition squarely. Is the Democratic party honest? Is it sincere, or is it hippodroming? Is it sincere to the same effect about increases which were being advocated. And then the increase was voted by a narrow majority."

Our Nature to Dispute.

Senator Root was making a statement in the senate one day, and two senators took issue with him. When they finished he remarked that they both corroborated just what he had been saying and added:

"Many years ago I had the great pleasure of knowing very well that very distinguished patriot and statesman, Samuel J. Tilden. Once in conversation with him he made a statement to me and said, 'Nobody can dispute that,' and then he instantly caught himself and said: 'No; I take that back. You put any hundred men in a room and make any proposition on earth to them and you will find somebody who will dispute it.'"

Battillery of Modern Progress.

"The battillery of modern progress," asserted Senator Chilton of West Virginia, "is to put 'the man above the dollar.' To that I give my approval and my vote when it can be done without the grant of the constitution."

Cheap Living.

In the Blue Nile region in Egypt a native laborer can live very comfortably on 6 to 8 cents a day.

Federal Lawyers Discuss Tennessee Coal Absorption

New York, May 16.—Taking the testimony of John A. Topping, chairman of the Republic Iron and Steel company, the government lawyers in the suit to dissolve the United States Steel corporation under the Sherman anti-trust act laid the foundation of evidence by which they hope to prove that the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company by the corporation during the financial panic of 1907 was illegal.

The government contends that to acquire the company the steel corporation took advantage of the financial difficulties of the banking firm of Moore & Schley, the large holders of Tennessee Coal and Iron stock, and that when President Roosevelt was induced by Judge Gary and Henry C. Frick to place the seal of his approval upon the transaction on the ground that it was the only way in which the firm could be saved from ruin and the panic checked the president was deceived as to the real object of the corporation.

SEVEN PERISH IN
FARMHOUSE FIRESkeletons Found in Ruins of South Dakota Home.

Presho, S. D., May 16.—Peter Pederson, living twelve miles northwest of here, his wife and five children, the latter all under nine years of age, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home near Lund, Lyman county.

A woman on horseback searching for stray cattle found the ruins. An investigation disclosed parts of several skeletons. All apparently were burned in their beds except Mrs. Pederson, who had made her way to the kitchen, where an incubator was kept. Pederson had spoken to neighbors about the brooder lamp leaking and the coroner's jury gave a verdict of death from an explosion.

The farm is situated so that the blaze of the burning house appeared to be a bonfire and nothing was known of it for twenty-four hours.

SAW LINER TITANIC SINK

Officer on Californian Certain Vessel
Was Near Scene of Wreck.

London, May 16.—At least one officer of the Leyland liner Californian firmly believes the Californian was in the vicinity of the Titanic the night the White Star liner went down and that, although he did not know it, he actually saw her sink as the lights of the vessel they were watching disappeared.

Charles Grove, the third officer, the man in question, so testified at the board of trade inquiry. His fellow officers disagree with him, but from the remarks of Lord Mersey, the president of the inquiry, he concurs in the belief of Grove.

NO STRING ON DELEGATES

Michigan Democrats Decide Upon No
Instructions.

Bay City, Mich., May 16.—The Michigan state Democratic convention concluded its sessions here by voting to send an uninstructed delegation of thirty members to the national convention at Baltimore. Woodrow Wilson's Michigan managers were defeated in efforts to have the delegates instructed for him and Speaker Champ Clark's friends hailed the outcome of the convention as a Clark victory. Immediately after the convention had adjourned Clark leaders declared that twenty-two of the thirty members of the delegation were for Clark.

Bans High Furniture Rates.

Washington, May 16.—Increases in the transportation rates on furniture, in car loads, between points in Central freight association and Western Traffic association territories, averaging about 15 per cent, were suspended by the interstate commerce commission from June 7 until Sept. 3.

May 24.

Hamburg, May 16.—The body of King Frederick VIII. of Denmark will be taken by special train to Travemunde. Thence the royal yacht Dannebrog, conveyed by a warship, will convey the body to Copenhagen.

Copenhagen, May 16.—The body of King Frederick VIII. will lie in state in the chapel of Christiansborg palace, where hundreds of wreaths already have arrived. The funeral service will take place May 24 in the cathedral at Roskilde, which is nineteen miles from the tombs of most of the Danish kings. The theaters in Copenhagen have been closed for three days and on all sides buildings are being draped with mourning.

SOUTH MAY ABANDON TAFT

Roosevelt Manager Makes Public Certain Correspondence.

Washington, May 16.—That the Southern delegates are prepared to abandon the candidacy of President Taft and turn to the support of Theodore Roosevelt is indicated in correspondence made public here by Senator Dixon, the Roosevelt manager. It became definitely known that John C. Capers, South Carolina's Republican national committeeman, has enlisted in the fight for Colonel Roosevelt. Capers has a strong influence in the South outside of his own state and his advocacy of the Roosevelt candidacy has made a profound impression on the Taft management, which now is fearful of a stampede among the delegates in the Southern states.

To Keep From Losing Breath.

Where respiration is rhythmic there is no loss of breath in walking fast, running up hill or going upstairs. The method of preventing breathlessness consists in maintaining the rhythm and the speed of respiration. When the breathing is rhythmic the breathing keeps pace with the step. The out-breathing must be twice the length of the in-breathing and not more than eighteen or twenty complete breath-circuits must be made per minute.—Harper's.

Intends to Flay Roosevelt Until Campaign Closes.

IS TOO LATE TO TURN BACK

President Says No Matter Whether
Colonel Drops Personalities or Not
He Will Continue to Criticize the Former President and Takes a Few Flings at Him During Ohio Tour.

Sandusky, O., May 16.—President Taft will not let up in his attack on Colonel Roosevelt as long as he is in the campaign for renomination.

No matter whether Mr. Roosevelt ceases his personal attacks on the president or not Mr. Taft intends to keep up his campaign of criticisms of the former president and of outlining the achievements of the Taft administration. In a half dozen of the short speeches he made, the third day he has spent on his present tour of his home state, Mr. Taft emphatically declared it was no time now for Colonel Roosevelt to preach the doctrine of "no personalities."

"Having called me everything in the category of bad names that are mentioned in polite society Mr. Roosevelt now wishes to indulge in less emphatic expressions," said Mr. Taft at Bucyrus.

"Well," he continued, "I don't want to bandy epithets with him, but I do wish to meet his unfounded charges."

"Mr. Roosevelt is now going about Ohio saying that he will not condescend to personalities with me," Mr. Taft shouted at Mansfield.

"If he had reached that conclusion two months ago at all. But, having applied to me every name in the calendar and now coming back to Ohio and fearing its effects, he says, 'Let's have no personalities.' I am here to answer the charges that he is continuing to make, although he does not roar so loudly and does not use so many epithets. Our merchants don't forget those things."

Knows Truth From Fiction.

At Gallion, the president said: "I may be puzzled witted, but I know the difference between plain truth and plain fiction, and there are some people that I don't think do."

He had been talking about Mr. Roosevelt.

Mr. Taft spoke twelve times, including his address here. He started out with the handicap of unusual hoarseness; seemed to conquer it after a time in the morning, but late in the day it returned in worse form than ever, and at several towns Mr. Taft could speak only for a few minutes. r. Thomas L. Rhoades, the president's physician, was hopeful, however, that a rest in Cleveland would put the president in shape to take up speech-making again Friday.

During the day the president was applauded frequently by large crowds. Although the main theme of his talks was his own administration, its efforts of good legislation and the necessity for granting him a square deal he brought in the name of Mr. Roosevelt time after time.

"I deny, my friends, that Theodore Roosevelt and his election are essential to the happiness of the American people," said the president at Marion. "You would think from the way he talked that we were a very oppressed people. Well, I have no doubt there is room for improvement, but I think we are getting along fairly well and we are not in a condition of dissolution so that we need a capital operation in the form of Theodore Roosevelt for a third term."

STRENUOUS NEW JERSEY TRIP

President Will Make Speeches in Twenty-seven Cities.

Newark, N. J., May 16.—Stops for speeches in twenty-seven New Jersey cities and towns are arranged for President Taft in the itinerary of his campaign trip through the state in the few days just prior to the primary election Tuesday, May 28.

The tour is to be one of the most strenuous ever attempted in New Jersey. It will begin Thursday evening, May 23, at Camden, Burlington and Trenton, and will conclude Monday night, the eve of the primaries, at Atlantic City, with the four days' work broken up by a Sunday's rest in New York city.

FINDS TITANIC DEATH BOAT

Collapsible With Three Bodies Picked Up by Oceanic.

New York, May 16.—A message received by the White Star line from the steamer Oceanic, en route to New York, reported the picking up by the liner of a collapsible boat from the sunken steamer Titanic containing three bodies. The boat was found, according to the message, May 13 in latitude 39.56 north, longitude 47.01 west.

The collapsible boat referred to in the message, it was stated at the White Star office here, is the one mentioned by Officer Lowe in his testimony before the senate committee, from which he took into his boat twenty men and one woman, leaving on board three dead bodies.

Edward J. Williams Calls William P.

Also Further Complicates His Testimony.Washington, May 16.—Edward J.
Williams of Scranton, Pa., chief witness so far in the house judiciary committee's investigation of an alleged transaction between Judge Robert W.
Archbald of the commerce court and
the Erie railroad, furnished a sensational at the hearing when he denounced William P. Boland, also of Scranton and author of the charges against the jurist, as "a traitor, a cutthroat and a dangerous man."While Williams hotly denounced Boland, who sat within arm's length,
he also charged him with once having
"doped" a lawyer in Scranton to get certain information. By the time the star was over Williams had further complicated his testimony. He repudiated a letter signed by him and sent to Vice President Conn of the Laurel line, who had contracted to buy the Katydid culm bank from Williams and Archbald after they had procured an option upon it from the Erie.A photograph of the letter is in possession of the department of justice,
but Conn testified it had never been out of his possession and that he had not been a party to photographing it.
A reference in the letter "to a party
with whom you have been dealing"
was construed to mean Judge Archbald. Attorney Worthington, for the judge, sought to bring out an inference that Boland had inspired the letter and photographed it before it was sent to Conn.

Williams."Do you recollect, Mr. Williams,
that you are under oath and might be punished for false swearing?" asked Representative McCoy of New Jersey."Yes, I know that," answered Williams."But that man" (there the wit-

behind him) "that man—I don't know

ers.""Who do you mean has done things
to others?""I mean William P. Boland there," Williams replied, pointing again to the author of the charges against the
jurist."If you did not dictate this letter,
who do you think did dictate it?""Maybe Judge Archbald dictated
it," said Williams. "I haven't any idea."

TAFT GETS UTAH DELEGATES

Convention Instructs for Him and Adopts Platform.Provo, Utah, May 16.—Eight delegates to the Republican national convention were added to the Taft column at the Utah state convention.According to the resolutions adopted the Utah delegation was pledged
"to use all honorable means to secure President Taft's renomination."A minority of the resolutions committee recommended that the delegates "be instructed for the candidate
who will best represent the sentiment
of the whole party to secure victory
for the Republican party."Speech after speech was made for the minority, but the Taft forces interrupted impatiently, clamoring for a vote. When this was taken the majority report was adopted. Taft, in addition to the pledge for Taft, defended the protective tariff, an untrammelled judiciary and pensions and
called for legislation to protect ocean
going passengers and limit the term of the president to one term of six years,
was adopted.

KIDNAP AND TAR ANARCHIST

Californians Roughly Use Emma Gold-
man's Manager.San Diego, Cal., May 16.—Dr. Benjamin Reitman, manager for Emma Goldman, was kidnapped by a squad
of vigilantes here and taken to a ranch
several miles north of this city, where he was tarred and driven across the desert. The letters "I. W. W." the initials of the Industrial Workers of the World, around which the San Diego free speech fight centers, were repeated on Reitman's back.Reitman was kidnapped in an automobile, while Emma Goldman was appealing to the police to protect her
from a crowd which had surrounded
her hotel.

DEMOCRATS NEARLY FIGHT

Police Reserves Called to Quiet Tennessee Convention.Nashville, Tenn., May 16.—Police reserves were called to quiet tennessee convention here when it seemed that a fight was about to occur on the rostrum.Representative K. D. McKellar during a speech said the "Democratic party is tired of Dibrell," whereupon Dibrell, who is state comptroller,
mounted the rostrum and started to
words McKellar. There was a general rush of delegates, during which
the speakers' table was overturned,
but order was restored before serious damage was done. Dibrell denied
he intended striking McKellar.COLONEL HAS ABOUT 25,000 MAJORITYCalifornia Primary Returns Are Not Yet Complete.San Francisco, May 16.—With the lead held by Roosevelt gaining, as belated returns from Tuesday's preferential primary are received, indications are that he will approximate the 25,000 majority estimated for him by his managers. Figures at hand from 2,855 precincts out of a total of 3,700,
give: Roosevelt, 122,702; Taft, 62,332;
La Follette, 40,825.This gives Roosevelt a present majority of 19,480. The same precincts
give Clark 35,481 and Wilson 15,694.
Confidence among politicians is busy
with the condition presented by Taft's
having carried the Fourth congressional district, which is in San Francisco. While many express the belief that two delegates from this district
will be sent to the national convention
as contestants Philip S. Teller, vice chairman of the Taft Republicans of the state, said he believed a contest
doubtful. None in the Roosevelt
camp had given the subject a thought,
it was said.There is direct conflict between the state primary law and the rule of the Republican national committee regarding the selection of delegates. The state law, enacted at a special session
of the legislature last December, provides for the nomination of delegates
from congressional districts and their election by the state at large, while
the rule of the national committee is that delegates must be selected by congressional districts.There was nothing on the ballot to indicate from which congressional districts the twenty-six delegates were elected. All were elected from the state at large.So far the returns show that Taft
carried only one county, Calaveras, La Follette carried San Joaquin county.

Increase of Woodmen Insurance Rates
to Go to Referendum.Springfield, Ill., May 16.—By a vote
of 28 to 12 the senate passed the compromise bill agreed on by a committee
representing the Modern Woodmen
of Illinois and the "Insurgents" of the order. The bill is a substitute for the Donahue bill, which was passed by the house a few weeks ago. It will now go to the house in the form of an amendment and probably will be passed. The substitute bill provides that the matter of increasing rates be put to a referendum and under its provisions the burden of preventing
the new rates from becoming effective
is placed on the "Insurgents," who must muster a vote of more than 50
per cent of the total membership of the order against the increase.

Parliamentary "Popping."

A member of congress had been paying attention to a young lady for a long while and had taken her to attend the house until she was well
posted in the rules. On the last day of the session as they came out he bought her a bouquet of flowers and said to her, "May I offer you my handful of flowers?" She replied promptly,
"I move to amend by omitting all after
the word 'hand.'" He blushing accepted the amendment, and they adopted it unanimously.POLITICAL MIXUP
IS PRONOUNCEDMen, Not Measures, Figure In
the Campaign.

FORAKER IS ENJOYING IT.

Ex-Senator Says It Does Him Good to See "Those Two Fellows Telling the Truth About Each Other"—Old Controversy as to Senate and House Expenditures Is Up Again.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 16.—[Special.]—In these disturbed political times there are Republicans who say they will vote the Democratic ticket and Democrats who will vote the Republican ticket, provided always that certain men distasteful to them are named for president. The political mixup is more pronounced than it has been at any time since 1896, but at that time issues rather than men governed the situation. Now issues have been lost sight of in the personal side of the presidential contest in both parties. It is men, not measures, which figure in the campaign before the conventions.

Enjoying the Fight.

Once in awhile we hear of some one
who is really enjoying the situation.
Such a report came from Ohio. "It does me good to see those two fellows
telling the truth about each other," is a remark made by former Senator Foraker, who at different times in his career has been an ardent supporter of both Roosevelt and Taft and since then bitterly opposed to and by both of them.It was Foraker who took the Ohio
situation in hand and endorsed Roosevelt for president in 1903, a year before the national campaign opened.
He did this in defiance of the wishes
of Hanna. Then Foraker fought through the senate the confirmation of Leonard Wood as major general of the army in the face of intense opposition.
Wood was Roosevelt's personal appointee and friend. Later Foraker and Roosevelt split on railroad regulation
and are now bitter foes. Taft and Foraker split at the same time, for in those days the two contestants for the Republican nomination were Will and Theodore to each other, with the word
"dear" prefixed if they were writing
letters.

An Old, Old Controversy.

Every two or three years the old controversy as to the expenditures in the senate as compared to those of the house came up for discussion. Members of the house receive the same salaries as the senators, but their clerks
are paid less, and they do not have so many of them. Every senator has at least one clerk at $2,200 and a messenger at $1,440, while the allowance for
a congressman is one clerk at $1,500.
The house members do not like this inequality, but they have not the nerve to stop it. To reduce the number of clerks or the salaries of the senate
would not be considered "comity" between the houses. The senate goes on in its own way and pays its clerks and as many of them as it chooses. The house creeps along slowly a few years
behind, but catching up to some extent, and the result is that congress
has grown more expensive proportionately than almost any other branch or department of the government.

Signers of Petitions.

Giving a list of names of members
of congress who had signed a certain
petition regarding an appointment.
Congressman Austin of Tennessee had a number of men on their feet. Both Dalzell and Moore of Pennsylvania declared if their names were on the paper they had no recollection of signing
and did not know they had signed such a document.

Need of Clerks.

Members of congress were trying to obtain more money for their clerks,
and Fitzgerald was opposing it.
"Some of the members will need more
clerk hire before next November," remarked a New Yorker. "If they continue to go on as they have during the present session. We might as well face this proposition squarely. Is the Democratic party honest? Is it sincere, or is it hippodroming? And more to the same effect about increases which were being advocated.
And then the increase was voted by a narrow majority."

Our Nature to Dispute.

Senator Root was making a statement in the senate one day, and two senators took issue with him. When they finished he remarked that they both corroborated just what he had been saying and added:"Many years ago I had the great pleasure of knowing very well that
very distinguished patriot and statesman, Samuel J. Tilden. Once in conversation with him he made a statement to me and said, 'Nobody can dispute that,' and then he instantly
caught himself and said: 'No, I take that back. You put any hundred men in a room and make any proposition on earth to them and you will find somebody who will dispute it.'"

Battillery of Modern Progress.

"The battillery of modern progress,"
asserted Senator Clifton of West Virginia, "is to put 'the man above the dollar.' To that I give my approval and my vote when it can be done with-
in the grant of the constitution."

Cheap Living.

In the Blue Nile region in Egypt a native laborer can live very comfortably on 6 to 8 cents a day.

SAY PRESIDENT WAS TRICKED

Federal Lawyers Discuss Tennessee
Coal AbsorptionNew York, May 16.—Taking the testimony of John A. Topping, chairman of the Republic Iron and Steel company, the government lawyers in the suit to dissolve the United States Steel corporation under the Sherman
anti-trust act laid the foundation of evidence by which they hope to prove that the absorption of the Tennessee
Coal and Iron company by the corporation during the financial panic of 1907 was illegal.The government contends that to acquire the company the steel corporation took advantage of the financial difficulties of the banking firm of Moore & Schley, the large holders of Tennessee Coal and Iron stock, and that when President Roosevelt was induced by Judge Gary and Henry C.
Frick to place the seal of his approval
upon the transaction on the ground
that it was the only way in which the panic could be saved from ruin and the panic checked the president was deceived as to the real object of the corporation.SEVEN PERISH IN FARMHOUSE FIRESkeletons Found in Ruins of South Dakota Home.Presho, S. D., May 16.—Peter Feder-
son, living twelve miles northwest of here, his wife and five children, the latter all under nine years of age,
were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home near Lund, Lyman county.A woman on horseback searching for stray cattle found the ruins. An investigation disclosed parts of several skeletons. All apparently were burned in their beds except Mrs. Fed-erson, who had made her way to the kitchen, where an incubator was kept.
Pederson had spoken to neighbors
about the broader lamp leaking and the coroner's jury gave a verdict of death from an explosion.The farm is situated so that the blaze of the burning house appeared to be a bonfire and nothing was known
of it for twenty-four hours.

SAW LINER TITANIC SINK

Officer on Californian Certain Vessel
Was Near Scene of Wreck.London, May 16.—At least one officer of the Leyland Line Californian firmly believes the Californian was in the vicinity of the Titanic the night
the White Star liner went down and that, although he did not know it, he actually saw her sink as the lights of the vessel they were watching disappeared.Charles Grove, the third officer, the man in question, so testified at the board of trade inquiry. His fellow officers disagree with him, but follow the remarks of Lord Mersey, the president of the inquiry, he concurs in the belief of Grove.

NO STRING ON DELEGATES

Michigan Democrats Decide Upon No
Instructions.Bay City, Mich., May 16.—The Michigan state Democratic convention
concluded its sessions here by voting
to send an uninstructed delegation of thirty members to the national convention at Baltimore. Woodrow Wilson's Michigan managers were defeating in efforts to have the delegates instructed for him and Speaker
Champ Clark's friends hailed the outcome of the convention as a Clark victory. Immediately after the convention had adjourned Clark leaders declared that twenty-two of the thirty
members of the delegation were for Clark.

where hundreds of wreaths already have arrived. The funeral service will take place May 24 in the cathedral at

SOUTH MAY ABANDON TAFT

Roosevelt Manager Makes Public Correspondence.Washington, May 16.—That the Southern delegates are prepared to abandon the candidacy of President Taft and turn to the support of Theodore Roosevelt is indicated in correspondence made public here by Senator Dixon, the Roosevelt manager. It became definitely known that John C.
Capers, South Carolina's Republican
national committeeman, has enlisted in the fight for Colonel Roosevelt. Capers has a strong influence in the South outside of his own state and his advocacy of the Roosevelt candidacy has made a profound impression
on the Taft management, which now
is fearful of a stampede among the delegates in the Southern states.

To Keep From Losing Breath.

Where respiration is rhythmic there
is no loss of breath in walking fast, running up hill or going upstairs. The method of preventing breathlessness
consists in maintaining the rhythm and the speed of respiration. When the breathing is rhythmic the breathing
keeps pace with the step. The out-breathing must be twice the length of the inbreathing and not more than
eighteen or twenty complete breath circuits must be made per minute.—Har-

Are you keeping your bowels, liver
and stomach clean, pure and fresh
with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway through these alimentary
or drainage organs every few days
with Salts, Cathartic pills, Castor Oil
or Purgative Waters.

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the undig-ested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from
the liver and carry out of the system
all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work
while you sleep—never gripe, sicken
or cause any inconvenience, and cost
only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women
take a Cascaret now and then and
never have Headache, Biliousness,
coated tongue, indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cas-carets belong in every household.
Children just love to take them.

CONVENTION IS FOR ROOSEVELT

Adopt Resolutions Praising Taft's Zeal and Patriotism and Instruct Delegates for Roosevelt

TWO DELEGATES ARE ELECTED

Resolutions Endorse Nelson, Clapp, Lindbergh, Eastman and Praise LaFollette's Work

The sixth district republican convention spelled Roosevelt and harmony, and the harmony was secured even if Hon. Frank White, of Elk River, had to fight to get it in the resolutions and in the convention.

The convention was called to order by Hon. Alvah Eastman, of St. Cloud. Harry West, of Foley, was elected chairman and C. A. Albright of Brainerd, secretary.

Hon. Frank White moved that a committee of resolutions be appointed, the delegation from each county to present the name of a member and the following were appointed: Benton, M. C. Robbers; Cass, P. J. Keating; Crow Wing, A. D. Polk; Douglas, Lewis Evans; Hubbard, J. W. Jackson; Meeker, J. Y. Winnings; Morrison, Frank W. Lyon; Sherburne, Frank White; Stearns, A. M. Welles; Todd, Wm. Wilke; Wadena, Charles T. Kelly; Wright, J. T. Alley.

The credentials committee was selected in the same manner and embraced a man selected by each delegation as follows: Benton, Andrew Thoen; Cass, D. V. Wardner; Crow Wing, J. T. Hale; Douglas, J. O. Lewis; Hubbard, F. D. Long; Meeker, E. N. Nelson; Morrison, Chas. Bolander; Sherburne, Irvin S. Wagner; Stearns, A. F. Steffen; Todd, T. J. Sharkey; Wadena, Matthew Williams; Wright, O. C. Chamberlain.

A committee of three on permanent organization was selected and embraced J. E. Cooling, of St. Cloud; Col. C. H. March, of Litchfield; Dr. N. W. Chance, of Little Falls.

The committee on credentials elected Charles Bolander, chairman and T. J. Sharkey secretary. The credentials committee seated all delegates and proxies. A motion carried that the chairman of the delegation cast the vote for all absentees. J. E. Cooling, of the permanent organization committee, reported that the temporary organization be made permanent and the report was adopted. The committee on resolutions submitted the following:

"Your committee beg leave to report the following resolutions: The republicans of the sixth Minnesota district in convention assembled believe that under republican rule this country has attained to the highest place among the nations of the world. We commend the zeal and patriotism of the chief executive of the nation, President Wm. H. Taft and recommend to the voters of the country for their consideration the principles and the candidates of the republican party.

"The delegates of the sixth congressional district of the state of Minnesota representing as they do the overwhelming sentiment of the republican voters of said district expressed in caucuses and conventions throughout the district, believe that the time has come for the party to take advanced ground on the great public questions of the day, therefore be it resolved that we heartily endorse the candidacy of the foremost citizen of this country and all the world, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, for the next president of the United States.

"Under him we believe that the door of opportunity will never be shut in the face of the man that toils and produces or the man that invests, that all will have a square deal and an equal chance in the struggle for existence.

"The delegates selected by this convention are therefore instructed to work and vote zealously at the Chicago convention for the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt.

"We also commend the work and zeal of our Senators Nelson and Clapp in furthering the interests of the state of Minnesota.

"We further heartily commend the course of our congressman, the Hon.

C. A. Lindbergh and endorse his candidacy for re-election in November. "Believing that the great sixth district has within its precincts another distinguished citizen, who would well and ably represent the state of Minnesota in congress, we heartily endorse the Hon. Alvah Eastman, of St. Cloud, for congressman-at-large from the state of Minnesota and recommend him to the serious consideration of the whole people of the state as a man in every way fitted to represent the whole state in that capacity.

"Believing that we have within our district many men who are ardent admirers of Senator Robert M. LaFollette, we have no hesitation in commending him for the great work he has done throughout the whole country for the cause of the common people and we believe that he can do still greater work in constructive and progressive legislation if he is allowed to continue his service in the senate of the United States.

"In closing, we beg leave to submit that the country is still here, the nation still lives and that the cause of the people is not advanced by ill-advised or hasty legislation, but that all matters for the common good should be worked out carefully, and only adopted after due deliberation and that as citizens of a great country we continue to insist on a 'square deal' for all."

After the reading of the majority report the following minority report on resolutions was brought in by W. Wilke, of Todd county and J. W. Jackson, of Hubbard county.

"We endorse the progressive principles of the republican party in general, and in convention assembled believe it is time to take advanced ground on all public questions, therefore be it resolved that we endorse the candidacy of Robert M. LaFollette."

On motion, the minority report was laid on the table indefinitely. The majority report was then accepted without debate. Nominations were declared in order for delegates to the national convention.

Judge John T. Alley, of Buffalo, placed in nomination E. C. Tuttle, of Buffalo, whom he characterized as a young and energetic republican.

Hon. Frank White, of Elk River, nominated Andrew Davis, of Elk River.

W. D. Jubert, of Litchfield, seconded the nomination of Mr. Tuttle.

Dr. W. T. Stone, of Park Rapids, nominated A. D. Day, of Todd county, as a LaFollette delegate to the Chicago convention. He made an impassioned speech for LaFollette.

Mr. White made the point of order that delegates had been instructed for Roosevelt.

Another LaFollette county delegate nominated as a man friendly to LaFollette, Ole Amundson, of Douglas county.

Mr. White moved to close the nominations and dispense with the oratory.

T. J. Sharkey, of Staples, was placed in nomination.

Col. C. H. Marsh said Meeker county was for LaFollette first and then Roosevelt. In the interests of harmony he would withdraw the candidate he wished to nominate, Wm. O'Brien, of Eden Valley. The nominations were then closed, the vote resulting:

Why He Was Called "Good Friday." Alfred Bunn, the celebrated English impresario and operatic librettist of the last century, was not always in an amiable frame of mind, and one day he was seen at a rehearsal holding a wretched "super" by the collar and scolding him savagely. The poor fellow's fright and distress, says F. J. Crowest in his biographical anecdotes of famous musicians, attracted the attention of Malibran, the famous prima donna. The lady crossed over to the manager and said:

"Do you know, I shall call you 'Good Friday'?"

"Why?" he asked.

"Because," replied Malibran, "you are such a hot cross bun."

George D. LaBar Extends Invitation to 6th Dist. Group Minnesota Bankers Association

TO HOLD CONVENTION HERE

Little Falls Gathering May 15 Nominated M. T. Dunn to Executive Council

Unanimously accepting the invitation extended them by George D. LaBar, the Sixth District Group of the Minnesota Bankers association in session at Little Falls on May 15, voted to hold their tenth annual meeting in Brainerd at the date to be set by the executive committee in May, 1913.

Mr. LaBar is to be congratulated on securing this convention of bankers for the city. It means much to Brainerd. As Mr. LaBar expressed it: "We cannot get too many conventions for Brainerd. They do much to advertise the city and get people interested in Brainerd."

The convention at Little Falls also nominated M. T. Dunn to the executive council of the state association of bankers. Mr. LaBar and Mr. Dunn expressed themselves as pleased with the courtesies shown visiting members at Little Falls. The hospitality of the Morrison county town was something to be remembered, treasured and commended.

The convention met at Elks hall at one o'clock, and opened with a prayer by Rev. A. O. Worthing. The address of welcome was delivered by S. P. Brick, the mayor of Little Falls. Will Wilke of Grey Eagle, was scheduled to deliver the response. Then followed the annual address by the president, A. H. Turrin; the report of the secretary, J. K. Martin; the report of the executive committee.

The question box and round table discussion was conducted by W. W. Smith, cashier of the First National bank of St. Cloud. At 3:30 P. M. the various committees were appointed.

At four o'clock the delegates were given an auto ride to the saw mills and paper mills and also made a trip to the farm of N. M. Williams and sampled some of the Guernsey milk.

At six o'clock lunch was served at Elks hall by the ladies of the Working club. Then followed unfinished business, reports of committees and the election of officers.

The banquet was served at eight o'clock at the Buckman hotel. The toast master was John Wetzel, vice president of the German American National bank of Little Falls. J. W. Wheeler, vice president of the Capitol National Bank of St. Paul, delivered an address on "Agriculture." Curtis L. Mosher, secretary of the Citizens League of Minnesota, spoke on "Reform in Bank Legislation." Charles D. Brown, manager of the protective department of the Minnesota Bankers association, delivered an address on "The Yegg-Man." Short talks were given by other prominent men of the state.

STYLES FOR AUTUMN.

Manufacturers Agree on Make of Jackets, Skirts and Separate Coats.

Styles for autumn were adopted at Toledo, O., by the National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' association. About 100 manufacturers were in attendance. These are authorized:

Suit jackets will show a gradual rather than a radical increase in length, finger tip length (approximately thirty-two inches) predominating, the lengths to be based on the varying heights of women.

Skirts will continue on straight lines. The slightly raised waist line with the inner belting will continue in favor.

Separate coats will be full length and cut on straight lines. Some materials will be made in perfectly loose shapes, with or without belts, and others will be made in more shapely effects. The feature of the separate coats will consist of set in sleeves, deep armholes, sloping shoulders and high buttoning effects.

The New Philippines.

The Philippines is a name familiar in American ears, but few know that the title of the "New Philippines" was once given to a large area of American soil. The first settlement in what is now Texas was made by French immigrants in the year 1685. During the next twenty-five years there was an intermittent struggle between the French and the Spanish for supremacy, resulting in favor of the latter, and in 1814 the name of the "New Philippines" was given to the country. This was its official name in Spanish records for many years and until the name of Texas, from a tribe of Indians, gradually came into vogue.—New York Press.

CONFESSES TO BRUTAL MURDER

Special by Phone to Dispatch:

Little Falls, Minn., May 16—At the breakfast hour this morning, Tony Schneider, alias John Kropel, confined in the Morrison county jail, confessed to having brutally murdered Mrs. F. J. Page, of Ausland, near Pillager.

The Hungarian said that robbery was the motive and that he believed she was carrying a large sum of money. He waylaid her in the woods, grabbed her with his right arm and cut her throat with his left hand.

Mrs. Page, it developed, had been in the habit of carrying a considerable amount of money on her person, but a few days before death had deposited it for safe keeping.

RESOLUTIONS WERE DRAWN BY WHITE

Hon. Frank White, of Elk River, Endeavored to Satisfy all Factions in Convention

FIGHT ON ONE PARAGRAPH

Changing From Endorsing Taft Administration to Commending Taft's Zeal and Patriotism

The resolutions as adopted by the sixth district republican convention were drawn by Hon. Frank White, of Elk River, and were planned, as it appears, to satisfy all factions and promote harmony.

Before the convention, a large section of delegates caucused on the resolutions and they were the subject of considerable debate at the writing room of the Ransford hotel. The first paragraph originally endorsed the administration of President Taft. This section was objected to by LaFollette and Roosevelt men.

When the resolutions committee was appointed, the committee went into session and modified the offending paragraph to read as commending the president for his zeal and patriotism.

Taft is thus given a compliment. Roosevelt is lauded for his progressive stand, and Senators Nelson and Clapp, Messrs. Lindbergh and Eastman are endorsed; LaFollette is given commendation for his progressive work and it is hoped he will continue in the senate. Having progressed that far the resolutions take a breathing spell on any more advanced ground and stand pat in these words: "that the cause of the people is not advanced by ill-advised or hasty legislation, but that all matters for the common good should be worked out carefully, and only adopted after due deliberation."

To draw resolutions which thus cover the stand pat, the progressive, the Roosevelt, Taft and LaFollette constituents of the republican party is something of a masterpiece, and to have them adopted is also an achievement.

There was an undercurrent of feeling at the convention as to what would have happened to an amendment offered by a Roosevelt man incorporating in vigorous language a defense of the initiative, referendum and recall. This subject it is said, may crop out at the state convention today.

NEED OF RESCUE CAR SHOWN

Accident at Norrie Mine May Result in Government Appropriation.

Washington, May 16.—Because there is no mine rescue car near Ironwood, Mich., Dr. J. A. Holmes, director of the United States bureau of mines, stated that the government would make no attempt to relieve conditions at the Norrie mine. He was advised that thirteen men had been imprisoned there. Congressman Young believes the accident will serve to demonstrate the need of a mine rescue car in the upper peninsula. An appropriation for an additional car to serve that territory has been recommended by Dr. Holmes and Mr. Young believes the committee on appropriations will make a favorable report.

A motion carried that the chairman of the delegation cast the vote for all absentees. J. E. Cooling, of the permanent organization committee, reported that the temporary organization be made permanent and the report was adopted. The committee on resolutions submitted the following:

"Your committee beg leave to report the following resolutions: The republicans of the sixth Minnesota district in convention assembled believe that under republican rule this place among the nations of the world. "We commend the zeal and patriotism of the chief executive of the nation, President Wm. H. Taft and recommend to the voters of the country for their consideration the principles and the candidates of the republican party.

"The delegates of the sixth congressional district of the state of Minnesota representing as they do the overwhelming sentiment of the republican voters of said district expressed in caucuses and conventions throughout the district, believe that the time has come for the party to take advanced ground on the great public questions of the day, therefore be it resolved that we heartily endorse the candidacy of the foremost citizen of this country and all the world, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, for the next president of the United States.

"Under him we believe that the door of opportunity will never be shut in the face of the man that toils and produces or the man that invests, that all will have a square deal and an equal chance in the struggle for existence.

"The delegates selected by this convention are therefore instructed to work and vote zealously at the Chicago convention for the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt.

"We also commend the work and zeal of our Senators Nelson and Clapp in furthering the interests of the state of Minnesota.

"We further heartily commend the course of our congressman, the Hon.

C. A. Lindbergh and endorse his candidacy for re-election in November. "Believing that the great sixth district has within its precincts another distinguished citizen, who would well and ably represent the state of Minnesota in congress, we heartily endorse the Hon. Alvah Eastman, of St. Cloud, for congressman-at-large from the state of Minnesota and recommend him to the serious consideration of the whole people of the state as a man in every way fitted to represent the whole state in that capacity.

"Believing that we have within our district many men who are ardent admirers of Senator Robert M. LaFollette, we have no hesitation in commending him for the great work he has done throughout the whole country for the cause of the common people and we believe that he can do still greater work in constructive and progressive legislation if he is allowed to continue his service in the senate of the United States.

"In closing, we beg leave to submit that the country is still here, the nation still lives and that the cause of the people is not advanced by ill-advised or hasty legislation, but that all matters for the common good should be worked out carefully, and only adopted after due deliberation and that as citizens of a great country we continue to insist on a 'square deal' for all."

After the reading of the majority report the following minority report on resolutions was brought in by W. Wilke, of Todd county and J. W. Jackson, of Hubbard county.

"We endorse the progressive principles of the republican party in general, and in convention assembled believe it is time to take advanced ground on all public questions, therefore be it resolved that we endorse the candidacy of Robert M. LaFollette."

On motion, the minority report was laid on the table indefinitely. The majority report was then accepted without debate. Nominations were declared in order for delegates to the national convention.

Judge John T. Alley, of Buffalo, placed in nomination E. C. Tuttle, of Buffalo, whom he characterized as a young and energetic republican.

Hon. Frank White, of Elk River, nominated Andrew Davis, of Elk River.

W. D. Jubert, of Litchfield, seconded the nomination of Mr. Tuttle. Dr. W. T. Stone, of Park Rapids, nominated A. D. Day, of Todd county, as a LaFollette delegate to the Chicago convention. He made an impassioned speech for LaFollette. Mr. White made the point of order that delegates had been instructed for Roosevelt.

Another LaFollette county delegate nominated as a man friendly to LaFollette, Ole Amundson, of Douglas county.

Mr. White moved to close the nominations and dispense with the oratory.

T. J. Sharkey, of Staples, was placed in nomination.

Col. C. H. Marsh said Meeker county was for LaFollette first and then Roosevelt. In the interests of harmony he would withdraw the candidate he wished to nominate, Wm. O'Brien, of Eden Valley. The nominations were then closed, the vote resulting:

Why He Was Called "Good Friday."

Alfred Dunn, the celebrated English impresario and operatic librettist of the last century, was not always in an amiable frame of mind, and one day he was seen at a rehearsal holding a wretched "super" by the collar and scolding him savagely. The poor fellow's fright and distress, says F. J. Crowest in his biographical anecdotes of famous musicians, attracted the attention of Malibran, the famous prima donna. The lady crossed over to the manager and said: "Do you know, I shall call you 'Good Friday'?" "Why?" he asked. "Because," replied Malibran, "you are such a hot cross bun."

NEXT MEETING IN BRAINERD

George D. LaBar Extends Invitation to 6th Dist. Group Minnesota Bankers Association

TO HOLD CONVENTION HERE

Little Falls Gathering May 15 Nominated M. T. Dunn to Executive Council

Unanimously accepting the invitation extended them by George D. LaBar, the Sixth District Group of the Minnesota Bankers association in session at Little Falls on May 15, voted to hold their tenth annual meeting in Brainerd at the date to be set by the executive committee in May, 1913.

Mr. LaBar is to be congratulated on securing this convention of bankers for the city. It means much to Brainerd. As Mr. LaBar expressed it: "We cannot get too many conventions for Brainerd. They do much to advertise the city and get people interested in Brainerd."

The convention at Little Falls also nominated M. T. Dunn to the executive council of the state association of bankers. Mr. LaBar and Mr. Dunn expressed themselves as pleased with the courtesies shown visiting members at Little Falls. The hospitality of the Morrison county town was something to be remembered, treasured and commended.

The convention met at Elks hall at one o'clock, and opened with a prayer by Rev. A. O. Worthing. The address of welcome was delivered by S. P. Brick, the mayor of Little Falls. Will Wilke of Grey Eagle, was scheduled to deliver the response. Then followed the annual address by the president, A. H. Turritin; the report of the secretary, J. K. Martin; the report of the executive committee. The question box and round table discussion was conducted by W. W. Smith, cashier of the First National bank of St. Cloud. At 3:30 P. M. the various committees were appointed.

At four o'clock the delegates were given an auto ride to the saw mills and paper mills and also made a trip to the farm of N. M. Williams and sampled some of the Guernsey milk.

At six o'clock lunch was served at Elks hall by the ladies of the Working club. Then followed unfinished business, reports of committees and the election of officers.

The banquet was served at eight o'clock at the Buckman hotel. The toast master was John Wetzel, vice president of the German American National bank of Little Falls. J. W. Wheeler, vice president of the Capital National Bank of St. Paul, delivered an address on "Agriculture." Curtis L. Mosher, secretary of the Citizens League of Minnesota, spoke on "Reform in Bank Legislation." Charles D. Brown, manager of the protective department of the Minnesota Bankers association, delivered an address on "The Yegg-Man." Short talks were given by other prominent men of the state.

Skirts will continue on straight lines. The slightly raised waist line with the inner belting will continue in favor.

Separate coats will be full length and cut on straight lines. Some materials will be made in perfectly loose shapes, with or without belts, and others will be made in more shapely effects. The feature of the separate coats will consist of set in sleeves, deep armholes, sloping shoulders and high buttoning effects.

The New Philippines.

The Philippines is a name familiar in American ears, but few know that the title of the "New Philippines" was once given to a large area of American soil. The first settlement in what is now Texas was made by French immigrants in the year 1685. During the next twenty-five years there was an intermittent struggle between the French and the Spanish for supremacy, resulting in favor of the latter, and in 1814 the name of the "New Philippines" was given to the country. This was its official name in Spanish records for many years and until the name of Texas, from a tribe of Indians, gradually came into vogue.—New York Press.

CONFESSES TO BRUTAL MURDER

Special by Phone to Dispatch:

Little Falls, Minn., May 16—At the breakfast hour this morning, Tony Schneider, alias John Kropel, confined in the Morrison county jail, confessed to having brutally murdered Mrs. F. J. Page, of Ausland, near Pillager.

The Hungarian said that robbery was the motive and that he believed she was carrying a large sum of money. He waylaid her in the woods, grabbed her with his right arm and cut her throat with his left hand.

Mrs. Page, it developed, had been in the habit of carrying a considerable amount of money on her person, but a few days before death had deposited it for safe keeping.

RESOLUTIONS WERE DRAWN BY WHITE

Hon. Frank White, of Elk River, Endeavored to Satisfy all Factions in Convention

FIGHT ON ONE PARAGRAPH

Changing From Endorsing Taft Administration to Commending Taft's Zeal and Patriotism

The resolutions as adopted by the sixth district republican convention were drawn by Hon. Frank White, of Elk River, and were planned, as it appears, to satisfy all factions and promote harmony.

Before the convention, a large section of delegates caucused on the resolutions and they were the subject of considerable debate at the writing room of the Ransford hotel. The first paragraph originally endorsed the administration of President Taft. This section was objected to by LaFollette and Roosevelt men.

When the resolutions committee was appointed, the committee went into session and modified the offending paragraph to read as commending the president for his zeal and patriotism.

Taft is thus given a compliment. Roosevelt is lauded for his progressive stand, and Senators Nelson and Clapp, Messrs. Lindbergh and Eastman are endorsed; LaFollette is given commendation for his progressive work and it is hoped he will continue in the senate. Having progressed that far the resolutions take a breathing spell on any more advanced ground and stand pat in these words: "that the cause of the people is not advanced by ill-advised or hasty legislation, but that all matters for the common good should be worked out carefully, and only adopted after due deliberation."

To draw resolutions which thus cover the stand pat, the progressive, the Roosevelt, Taft and LaFollette constituents of the republican party is something of a masterpiece, and to have them adopted is also an achievement.

There was an undercurrent of feeling at the convention as to what would have happened to an amendment offered by a Roosevelt man incorporating in vigorous language a defense of the initiative, referendum and recall. This subject it is said, may crop out at the state convention today.

NEED OF RESCUE CAR SHOWN

Accident at Norrie Mine May Result in Government Appropriation.

Washington, May 16—Because there is no mine rescue car near Ironwood, Mich. Dr. J. A. Holmes, director of the United States bureau of mines, stated that the government would make no attempt to relieve conditions at the Norrie mine. He was advised that thirteen men had been imprisoned there. Congressman Young believes the accident will serve to demonstrate the need of a mine rescue car in the upper peninsula. An appropriation for an additional car to serve that territory has been recommended by Dr. Holmes and Mr. Young believes the committee on appropriations will make a favorable report.

Household Infelicities.

"Who in blue blazes took all of them quinine capsules. I can buy 'em by the gross and never find one when I want it."

"No, of course you ain't got a thing to wear. No woman ever had. I'd advise you to stay in the house if you haven't, for you are liable to be plucked."—Chicago Journal.

VICTORIOUS CHRIST HEADS PROCESSION

Leads Multitude of Captives
From Death's Prison.

At Boston Pastor Russell Pictures the Release of Death's Prisoners and Shows From Scripture That in the Triumphal Procession Four Grades Will Participate.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Boston, Mass., May 15.—Pastor Russell spoke here today in the Boston Theatre. In one of his two discourses he used the following text: "When He ascended up on high, He led a multitude of captives."—Ephesians iv, 8.

This grand expression respecting the glorious outcome of the Savior's work is quoted by the Apostle Paul from the Psalms (lxviii, 18). The figure thus thrust before our mental eye is that of a great Conqueror whose victory is being heralded. With the Romans we know that it was a custom that generals returning from wars were granted what were termed "Triumphs"—or triumphal processions.

Let us permit our mental eye to feast upon the scene of our text. Jesus, in fulfillment of the Divine Program, had left the heavenly condition and descended to earth, taking a bondman's form or nature in order "that He, by the grace of God, might taste death for every man," that He might rescue Adam and his race from the death condition—under Divine sentence and under the power of Satan.

Therefore, the Redeemer counted not His life precious to Him, but freely delivered Himself up, and died, "the Just for the unjust," that He might bring mankind back into harmony with God. His humiliation ended in death, but His triumph began when God raised Him from the dead by His own power and set Him at the right hand of His own Majesty—"far above angels, principalities and powers and every name that is named."

Leading Forth the Captives.
 With most conquerors, in olden times, the captives were made slaves. Not so, however, will be the result of Jesus' victory. First of all in the procession are the saints—"the Church of the First-born." Then will come a company, more numerous, but less heroic—"a great multitude," uncrowned, but with "palm branches," not antitypical Priests, but antitypical Levites, associates and servants of the Royal Priesthood, the Bride.

Then will follow (Hebrews xi, 38-40) other faithful ones of the past, the Ancient Worthies. The Prophet speaks of the "rebellious house." The classes previously specified were not rebellious, but gladly and willingly took all to do the will of the Father and to attain the liberty of sons of God, as the first-fruits of the triumph of the Lamb.

But during the thousand years of Christ's reign He will lead forth the "rebellious house"—the world of mankind—not all of them, we may be sure, for some, the Scriptures positively declare, will die the Second Death, because, after realizing their deliverance, they will love sin and will therefore be destroyed as enemies of God.

"He Gave Gifts Unto Men."
 In this prophetic reference to our Lord's ascension it is declared, not only that He would lead forth a multitude of captives, granting them freedom, liberty, blessings, but also that He would confer gifts.

The Apostle proceeds to explain the matter and tells us what gifts are meant. He says, "And He gave some Apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers." It behooves us to notice that the Apostle does not intimate that Jesus gave to some Methodism, to others Presbyterianism, and to others Roman Catholicism, etc. No, when we held such thoughts it was because we failed to see, first, that there is but the "one Church of the Living God, whose names are written in heaven," and second, that that one Church is not any of the various sects and parties, but includes the saintly in all of these. "For the Lord knoweth them that are His."

Nothing carefully the Apostle's argument we perceive that the Master did not give these gifts for the conversion of the world. He does specify, however, what they were for, namely, "for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the Body of Christ"—the Church, the Bride. Is it supposable that the Apostle erred in this statement and that the fact is the reverse—that these gifts were provided for the conversion of the world, and that the Apostle thoroughly misunderstands the matter? No! We are to be taught by the Apostles, and may be sure that there is no mistake.

The Lord from time to time has raised up evangelists, pastors and teachers for this glorious service of preparing the "chaste virgin," the Church, to be the Bride in glory, but the Apostolic office, as represented in The Twelve, specially provided by the Father, has continued and needs no replenishment. We still have their instructions as fully as the early Church, "that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto every good work."

Progress.

"Is your son making any progress in his profession?" asked a friend of a Cleveland business man whose college bred son has just left his alma mater to go to work for his father.

"Yes," sighed the father, "he is making a good deal of progress. He has been in the office for two years now, and he's beginning to learn the rudiments of some of the things he thought he could teach me when he was first graduated from the university."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cultivate Your Wife's Friendship.
 "A man's best friend," says Bulwer Lytton, "is a wife of good sense and good heart, whom he loves and who loves him. In woman there are at once a subtle delicacy of tact and a plain soundness of judgment which are rarely combined to an equal degree in man. A woman, if she be really your friend, will have a sensitive regard for your character, honor and reputation. She will seldom counsel you to do a shabby thing, for a woman always desires to be proud of you. At the same time her constitutional timidity makes her more cautious than your male friend. She therefore seldom counsels you to do an imprudent deed."

Tips From the Top.
 The common spinning top of our childhood days is something more than a mere toy, and its principles have been translated to many of the most useful things around us.

For example, by means of twisted grooves the spinning powers of the top have been imparted to rifle bullets and to the projectiles of our big guns. The torpedoes, too, is maintained on its course by a similar property.

There is a compass dependent upon the principles of a top, and the gyrostatic railway is but another step in the same direction.

The Australian boomerang and quoits in flight possess some of the properties of the top.—Pearson's Weekly.

Three Methods of Derision.
 There are very few allusions to storks in Latin authors, but one of these is interesting. The birds have a curious custom of snapping their bills, making quite a sharp noise. Young and old birds, both during and after the breeding season, constantly do this. In the writings of Persius there is a reference to this habit. "There are," he says, "three favorite ways of deriding a man—by putting the hands beside the head like asses' ears, by putting out the tongue like a dog and snapping the fingers against the palm of the hand like a stork's bill." The first two methods of mockery are plain, but what was the cause of the last?—Notes and Queries.

A Freak In Nest Building.
 Many birds that are shy and retiring in other respects show very little fear of the creaking and groaning of heavy machinery or the thunderous roar of heavy trains. I recall reading some years ago of a pair of courageous little sparrows that started a nest at one end of a large turntable in a roundhouse. This turntable was the same at both ends, and the birds built two nests—one on each end, working one day on one end, and the next day on the other, as the turntable was reversed. Here, in the midst of din and confusion, they finally selected one of the nests and raised a happy brood of young.—St. Nicholas.

Seventeenth Century Grocers.
 Shopkeepers in the seventeenth century were subject to other restrictions than those respecting prices. It was enacted that "any person using the trade or mystery of the grocer should not either by themselves or any third party directly or indirectly, keep more than one shop at the same time." Grocers were also forbidden to sell any commodities except "raysons, currants, sugar, spice, sope, candle, molasses, gunpowder, shot, match, tar, pitch, rozen, tobacco and pipes, cotton wool, cotton yarn, starch, blueing, rise, linseed oil, white and red lead, olives, prunes, figs, Spanish white alabaster, alum, almonds, brimstone, lampblack and candle rushes."—London Globe.

True In Every Language.
 Tennyson once attended a dinner where G. L. Craik proposed "The Ladies." In doing so he recalled the cynical advice given by a brother Scot to his children: "Tak my advice and dinna marry for siller. You can borrow cheaper." Some time later Tennyson at his own table repeated Mr. Craik's story, but expressed the idea without attempting dialect. His son, Hallam, remarked, "Surely, father, Craik did not use those words." "No," he did not; but, then, Craik is a Scotchman, and I am afraid to venture on repeating him exactly. However, it's almost as good in English as in Scotch, and it's tremendously true in both."

Temple of Diana.
 The famous temple of Diana was built at Ephesus in 552 B. C. by the common fund of all the Greek states of Asia. Pliny says that 220 years were spent in erecting it. It was set on fire in 356 B. C. and again rebuilt and was finally destroyed by the Goths about 256 A. D. The ruins of the famous temple, after serving as a quarry for the surrounding region for a long time, were finally discovered by Mr. Wood in 1869. The temple of Diana was 425 feet long, 225 feet wide and was supported by 127 columns sixty feet high, each weighing 150 tons. The marble of the columns was of the pure Parian variety.

The Father of Terror.
 "The father of terror" is the name the Arabs have given to the sphinx. It stands today even as it has done for thousands of years, though the exact date or century of its construction none can say. It is not only the oldest monument in the world, but the largest as well. It is carved wholly from a mass of solid natural rock, with the exception of the forepaws, which are built up with blocks of stone. It measures more than a hundred feet in length and is impressive and awe inspiring because of its stupendous size.

He Was Enlightened.
 We don't approve of the impertinence, but perhaps in the following case the grouchy street car passenger got no more than he deserved: He had asked a conductor if he knew when a certain train left the North station, and, on being answered in the negative, he exclaimed offensively, "Why is it that this road employs so many farmers?" "Just to look after the cattle that travel on the cars," was the conductor's quick retort.—Boston Transcript.

CHEERFULNESS.

Cultivate a cheerful disposition. If a person determines early in life that a cheerful disposition is worth having and strives to obtain it and does so that person is a success in a fine sense of the word. Of course comparatively few men and women ever stop to think about success in this form, but if they will acquire the habit I will guarantee a larger measure of satisfaction than they may have met with before. — Leigh Mitchell Hodges.

Benevolence.

"So you won't take children in your apartment house?"
 "Couldn't think of it," said the landlord.
 "Why do you dislike children?"
 "I don't. I'm so fond of them that I don't want to take a chance on their being kept awake by people who play the piano till midnight."—Washington Star.

At Boston Pastor Russell Pictures the Release of Death's Prisoners and Shows From Scripture That in the Triumphal Procession Four Grades Will Participate.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Boston, Mass., May 15.—Pastor Russell spoke here today in the Boston Theatre. In one of his two discourses he used the following text: "When He ascended up on high, He led a multitude of captives."—Ephesians iv, 8.

This grand expression respecting the glorious outcome of the Savior's work is quoted by the Apostle Paul from the Psalms (lxviii, 18). The figure thus thrust before our mental eye is that of a great Conqueror whose victory is being heralded. With the Romans we know that it was a custom that generals returning from wars were granted what were termed "Triumphs"—or triumphal processions.

Let us permit our mental eye to feast upon the scene of our text. Jesus, in fulfillment of the Divine Program, had left the heavenly condition and descended to earth, taking a bondman's form or nature in order "that He, by the grace of God, might taste death for every man;" that He might rescue Adam and his race from the death condition—under Divine sentence and under the power of Satan.

Therefore, the Redeemer counted not His life precious to Him, but freely delivered Himself up, and died, "the Just for the unjust," that He might bring mankind back into harmony with God. His humiliation ended in death, but His triumph began when God raised Him from the dead by His own power, and set Him at the right hand of His own Majesty—"far above angels, principalities and powers and every name that is named."

Leading Forth the Captives. With most conquerors, in olden times, the captives were made slaves. Not so, however, will be the result of Jesus' victory. First of all in the procession are the saints—"the Church of the First-born." Then will come a company, more numerous, but less heroic—"a great multitude," uncrowned, but with "palm branches," not antitypical Priests, but antitypical Levites, associates and servants of the Royal Priesthood, the Bride.

Then will follow (Hebrews xi, 38-40) other faithful ones of the past, the Ancient Worthies. The Prophet speaks also of the "rebellious house." The classes previously specified were not rebellious, but gladly and willingly took all to do the will of the Father and to attain the liberty of sons of God, as the first-fruits of the triumph of the Lamb.

But during the thousand years of Christ's reign He will lead forth the "rebellious house"—the world of mankind—not all of them, we may be sure, for some, the Scriptures positively declare, will die the Second Death, because, after realizing their deliverance, they will love sin and will therefore be destroyed as enemies of God.

"He Gave Gifts Unto Men." In this prophetic reference to our Lord's ascension it is declared, not only that He would lead forth a multitude of captives, granting them freedom, liberty, blessings, but also that He would confer gifts.

The Apostle proceeds to explain the matter and tells us what gifts are meant. He says, "And He gave some Apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers." It behooves us to notice that the Apostle does not intimate that Jesus gave to some Methodism, to others Presbyterianism, and to others Roman Catholicism, etc. No, when we hold such thoughts it was because we failed to see, first, that there is but the "one Church of the Living God, whose names are written in heaven," and second, that that one Church is not any of the various sects and parties, but includes the saintly in all of these. "For the Lord knoweth them that are His."

Noting carefully the Apostle's argument we perceive that the Master did not give these gifts for the conversion of the world. He does specify, however, what they were for, namely, "for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the Body of Christ—the Church, the Bride. Is it supposable that the Apostle erred in this statement and that the fact is the reverse—that these gifts were provided for the conversion of the world, and that the Apostle thoroughly misunderstand the matter? No! We are to be taught by the Apostles, and may be sure that there is no mistake.

The Lord from time to time has raised up evangelists, pastors and teachers for this glorious service of preparing the "chaste virgin," the Church, to be the Bride in glory, but the Apostle's office, as represented in The Twelve, specially provided by the Father, has continued and needs no replenishment. We still have their instructions as fully as the early Church, "that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto every good work."

Progress. "Is your son making any progress in his profession?" asked a friend of a Cleveland business man whose college-bred son has just left his alma mater to go to work for his father. "Yes," sighed the father, "he is making a good deal of progress. He has been in the office for two years now, and he's beginning to learn the rudiments of some of the things he thought he could teach me when he was first graduated from the university."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cultivate Your Wife's Friendship.

"A man's best friend," says Bulwer Lytton, "is a wife of good sense and good heart, whom he loves and who loves him. In woman there are at once a subtle delicacy of tact and a plain soundness of judgment which are rarely combined in an equal degree in man. A woman, if she be really your friend, will have a sensitive regard for your character, honor and reputation. She will seldom counsel you to do a shabby thing, for a woman always desires to be proud of you. At the same time her constitutional timidity makes her more cautious than your male friend. She therefore seldom counsels you to do an imprudent deed."

Tips From the Top. The common spinning top of our childhood days is something more than a mere toy, and its principles have been translated to many of the most useful things around us.

For example, by means of twisted grooves the spinning powers of the top have been imparted to rifle bullets and to the projectiles of our big guns. The torpedo, too, is maintained on its course by a similar property.

There is a compass dependent upon the principles of a top, and the gyrostatic railway is but another step in the same direction.

The Australian boomerang and quoits in flight possess some of the properties of the top.—Pearson's Weekly.

Three Methods of Derision.

There are very few allusions to storks in Latin authors, but one of these is interesting. The birds have a curious custom of snapping their bills, making quite a sharp noise. Young and old birds, both during and after the breeding season, constantly do this. In the writings of Persius there is a reference to this habit. "There are," he says, "three favorite ways of deriding a man—by putting the hands beside the head like asses' ears, by putting out the tongue like a dog and snapping the fingers against the palm of the hand like a stork's bill." The first two methods of mockery are plain, but what was the cause of the last?—Notes and Queries.

A Freak in Nest Building.

Many birds that are shy and retiring in other respects show very little fear of the creaking and groaning of heavy machinery or the thunderous roar of heavy trains. I recall reading some years ago of a pair of courageous little sparrows that started a nest at one end of a large turntable in a round-house. This turntable was the same at both ends, and the birds built two nests—one on each end, working one day on one end, and the next day on the other, as the turntable was reversed. Here, in the midst of din and confusion, they finally selected one of the nests and raised a happy brood of young.—St. Nicholas.

Seventeenth Century Grocers.

Shopkeepers in the seventeenth century were subject to other restrictions than those respecting prices. It was enacted that "any person using the trade or mystery of the grocer should not either by themselves or any third party directly or indirectly, keep more than one shop at the same time." Grocers were also forbidden to sell any commodities except "raysons, currants, sugar, spice, soap, candle, molasses, gunpowder, shot, match, tar, pitch, rozen, tobacco and pipes, cotton wool, cotton yarn, starch, blueing, rise, linseed oil, white and red lead, olives, prunes, figs, Spanish white alabaster, alum, almonds, brimstone, lampblack and candle rushes."—London Globe.

True in Every Language.

Tennyson once attended a dinner where G. L. Craik proposed "The Ladies." In doing so he recalled the cynical advice given by a brother Scot to his children: "Tak my advice and dinna marry for siller. You can borrow cheaper." Some time later Tennyson at his own table repeated Mr. Craik's story, but expressed the idea without attempting dialect. His son, Hallam, remarked, "Surely, father, Craik did not use those words." "No, he did not; but, then, Craik is a Scotchman, and I am afraid to venture on repeating him exactly. However, it's almost as good in English as in Scotch, and it's tremendously true in both."

Temple of Diana.

The famous temple of Diana was built at Ephesus in 552 B. C. by the common fund of all the Greek states of Asia. Pliny says that 220 years were spent in erecting it. It was set on fire in 356 B. C. and again rebuilt and was finally destroyed by the Goths about 256 A. D. The ruins of the famous temple, after serving as a quarry for the surrounding region for a long time, were finally discovered by Mr. Wood in 1869. The temple of Diana was 425 feet long, 225 feet wide and was supported by 127 columns sixty feet high, each weighing 150 tons. The marble of the columns was of the pure Parian variety.

The Father of Terror.

"The father of terror" is the name the Arabs have given to the sphinx. It stands today even as it has done for thousands of years, though the exact date of century of its construction none can say. It is not only the oldest monument in the world, but the largest as well.
